I Know Something Good About You

Wouldn't this old world be better
If the folks we meet would say,
"I know something good about you!"
And then treat us just that way?

Wouldn't it be fine and dandy,
If each handclasp warm and true
Carried with it this assurance,
"I know something good about you!"

Wouldn't life be lots more happy,
If the good that's in us all
Were the only thing about us
That folks bothered to recall?

Wouldn't life be lots more happy,
If we praised the good we see?—
For there's such a lot of goodness
In the worst of you and me.

Wouldn't it be nice to practice
That fine way of thinking, too?—
You know something good about me!
I know something good about you!

SMOKING

O how we all enjoy an Old Gold
The treasure of them all.
It is lifes unequaled pleasure
No matter what the weather
For their double sheet of cellophane
Assures you of a pleasing smoke
Sun shine or rain
Without internal pain
For they have reached the stage
of fame,
And they always taste the same,
So I have always been told
Where ever they have once been sold
By Miss, Mr., Mrs. or old maid.

BUY HORTON'S

Buy your ice-cream from Mr. Nick's
Vanilla, Chocolate, with Strawberry mixed.
We sell only twenty a pint,
Nothing else but Horton's kind.

Yes, they are Horton's we sell lot,
Dixies and pops hit the spot.
Buy them now, don't lose time,
And pay only two for dime.

We're ready to every call
With a Horton's Mel - O - Rol.
Don't fail to have one or two,
Which Horton's made just for you.

Sweet and soft they're too
Horton's sandwiches made for you
But if you're still in doubt,
Just try one and find it out.
